FRANKFORT, KY., SEPTEMBER 11, 1880.

NUMBER 51

Mrs. Franklin now has twenty-four pupils enrolled in her school.

If you want a good fitting suit, nicely made, and at low figures, go to V. Berberich.

Dr. C. W. Moffett, the gentleman to whom Dr. T. L. Taylor sold out, for some reason has failed to take charge of his purchase, and Dr. Taylor still holds the fort.

The City Council ordered that the city tax-book remain in the hands of the City Treasurer a month longer. Another chance for the slow ones to pay up before ten per cent. is added.

Rev. Wm. Irvine, of Mulberry Church, will preach twice to-morrow at the rooms of the High School, on South Side. Services will begin at 11 o'clock a. m. and at 7 1/2 o'clock p. m.

A petition was presented to the Council Tuesday night for more fire cisterns in "Craw." Why can't South Frankfort have a few also? That side of the city is as liable to be burned up as the lower part.

Dr. C. B. Snedaker, formerly of this city, was killed at Salt Lake City, Utah, Wednesday, by a man named Smith. He shot Smith first, who in turn shot and killed him instantly. Smith has since died of his wounds.

It is suggested by Col. W. H. Murray, that if the artist that decorated the bridge so beautifully with white wash would now paint the iron rods that it would add considerably to the appearance of that free institution.

Frank Mayo's Combination will appear at Major Opera House Tuesday night in the thrilling drama of Dave Crockett. Mr. Frank A. Tannehill takes the leading character and is well supported by a good company. The sale of reserved seats began at Dryden's Post Office News Depot this morning. Go and get your seat before all the choice ones are taken.

Attention Foresters.

All the members of Court Fleetwood, No. 26, I. O. F., are requested to meet at their Hall on Wednesday, September 15th, 1880. Business of importance requires a full meeting, and we would most respectfully urge every member to attend for once. Don't forget it.

THOMAS J. HUTCHISON.
C. R.

Mr. W. E. Wilson and Miss Susie Wash were married at the Christian Church in Alton Thursday, came to this city the same afternoon and took the train for a bridal trip to Cincinnati and other points North. The happy bridegroom is connected with the house of R. K. McClure & Bro., in Alton, and is as clever a fellow as lives, and having secured a beautiful bride we wish him all the joy imaginable.

We suggested to Johnston Todd that the artist for McClure & Bro.'s Fireside Journal had done him injustice in the illustration on the first page of that paper, when he informed us that he had written to the artist about the matter, threatening him with a lawsuit for damages, and was informed by that worthy gentleman that the picture was intended as a representation of Will. Hudson. Hudson is "on his ear" about it, and will make it hot for that artist when he visits Frankfort.

Mr. Jos. Jacoby has returned from New York with his goods and is only waiting to get ready the store-room he has rented when he will open a first-class millinery establishment in the Odd Fellows' Temple. Having had considerable experience in this line of business, he will keep constantly on hand just such goods as will please the ladies in this community, and has employed two first-class milliners from a New York house, who are well versed in the art of beautifying female apparel, and his customers cannot fail to be pleased. The ladies should not be in a hurry to purchase their fall hats and bonnets, but should wait until Mr. Jacoby's stock is opened for their inspection.

Nothing is more demoralizing to a man than to lose faith in his fellows. The man of faith and honor is not apt to be suspicious of others, and does not willingly believe evil. The lover of scandal and the believer in it are alike deficient in honor and morality, and are the bane of well organized society. If all the gossips could be quietly sent off to some barren desert between two days, honest, well-meaning people would wake up some bright morning to breathe a healthier atmosphere. There is death and misery in the highways and by-ways, and in the home, from the poisoned tongues of the gossips. Teach the children that gossiping is dishonorable, and that faith in the honor and virtue of mankind will build up society, and add to the sum of human happiness.

The City Council Tuesday night refused to rent Messrs. Fleming & Dustin a portion of the market-house to be used as a boiler factory, and some one present remarked that the Capital City Machine Works, which is situated in that building, was a nuisance. It is a great pity that the city of Frankfort has not a number of such enterprising citizens as Messrs. Ferguson & Meek to establish several nuisances of the same kind in our midst. Perhaps the town would then have some life in it. The Capital City Machine Works is by no means a nuisance. It is one of the growing institutions of the town and supplies a want long felt by the manufacturers of this vicinity. What matters it if the workmen do make a racket with their hammers, they are not near so noisy as the cars that are always puffing and rattling up and down the street. Give us more nuisances of the same sort.

French Tipton, of the Richmond Register, is an artist of considerable ability. He has a very fine drawing of Gen. Winfield S. Hancock in his office, and is at work on a picture of the General which, when completed, will be used in the present presidential campaign. The canvas on which the likeness is being drawn is 5 1/2 by 7 1/2 feet. The head will be very large—only the head and point of the shoulders showing. Printers' ink is the material used in painting the picture.

Bridgeport.

Mrs. Mary Gaines is very ill.

Prof. Shinn's school commenced last Monday.

Mrs. Ectum, of Cincinnati, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Born—On the 5th inst., to the wife of Oscar Roberts, a daughter.

Our esteemed friend, Prof. Alex. Julian, is teaching a flourishing school at Hardinsville.

Born—On the 4th inst., to the wife of Len. Blythe, a boy—10 pounds. Len. is happy.

Miss Cora Wiggs, of Hardinsville, has been visiting Misses Kate and Sue Jenkins this week.

Mr. Till Allen, of Bourbon county, who has been visiting relatives near this place, has returned home.

Mr. C. H. Menzies, of Harmony, Owen county, who has been visiting his mother, has returned home.

If it takes the Weekly Yeoman three days to come to subscribers at this place, how long would it take it to go to New York?

A very serious accident happened to Mr. John Jenkins Wednesday. He had been to Frankfort after a load of shingles and had returned with them, and attempting to drive under a shed was caught between the sill and wagon, and badly mashed up. It is feared he will not recover.

While Mr. Harry Collins was lying down with his head out of the door, some unknown scoundrel, came up and struck him with a piece of iron on the forehead, knocking him senseless for a while. It being dark at the time the would-be assassin made good his escape. From last accounts Mr. Collins was doing well. Bug.

White's School-House.

Miss Lee Hawkins, of Lawrenceburg, has been visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. Wm. Quin, our enterprising blacksmith, is enlarging his shop and will erect another forge and will hereafter employ another smith. Success, Billy.

Miss Ella Newbold, one of the most bewitching young ladies in our community, will leave in a few days for Philadelphia to attend school near that place.

Every Saturday night the negroes have a festival somewhere in the neighborhood which is continued until daylight Sunday morning, and when they break up they make the morning hideous by shooting and shouting. Such doings are a disgrace to a civilized community and should be stopped. * REPORTER.

Shea, a young man of well known energy, industry and reliability, and persons needing work in their line can rest assured that any order they may give Messrs. Sage & Shea will be promptly attended to. Success to the new firm.

Monday morning, about 11 o'clock, a little son of Mr. Moses Harrod, of Kansas, who is visiting with his parents at Mrs. Duvall's, about seven miles from this city down on Kentucky river, received a kick in the forehead from a horse, which fractured the skull and drove it in against the brain. A messenger was at once sent to this city for medical assistance, and that afternoon the skull was trephined and a piece of the frontal bone, two inches long by one inch wide was taken out, since which time the little fellow has been doing remarkably well, and it is hoped will soon be about again.

Clemp, O'Nan was acquitted last Saturday of the charge of shooting Joe Ware, colored, with intent to kill, but was held under the charge of carrying concealed a deadly weapon. He will be tried next Saturday.

Young, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The happy pair left on the 9:07 train for their future home in Ashland, via Lexington and Cincinnati.

A hungry looking individual dropped in at Griffin Bros. last Monday and inquired for some cheese and Bologna sausage. He was directed to Dr. Hall's drug store, and was there directed to Logan McKee's dry goods store, and was sent from there to McClure & Bro.'s shoe store, when Sam. Bull kindly showed him into Day & Haff's grocery store, where his hunger was appeased.

E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

All the schools in this city opened with a good attendance Monday morning.

Nearly three hundred Cincinnati Enquirers were sold in this city last Saturday.

Rev. Ben Deering has been conducting a series of meetings in Belle Point this week.

Mrs. J. L. Rodman cut four hundred and forty tub roses from her garden last Saturday morning.

Lieut. C. C. Todd has removed to his new residence on Ewing street, South Frankfort.

Make preparations to attend the fair every day this fall. It ought to and will be a grand success.

Mr. F. V. Gray closed out his entire stock of groceries at auction last Monday and has retired from the business.

Next Wednesday is the Jewish Atonement day, and the stores of our Jewish citizens will again be closed on that day.

Don't forget that the Frankfort fair commences on Tuesday, September 21st, and that the price of admission is only thirty-five cents.

The cost of putting new transparent dials in the city clock would be comparatively small and the improvement very great. Will the City Fathers try it?

A large number of persons have taken advantage of the reduction of rates on account of the Expositions to visit Cincinnati and Louisville this week.

Mr. John T. Stout has recently shipped the finest car load of mules to Savannah, Georgia, ever sent from these parts. They were sixteen hands high, and cost him $150 per head.

It is almost impossible to tell the exact time of day by the city clock on account of the indistinctness of the figures. Let us have new dials, or have the old ones put in good order.

Mr. H. G. Mattern has removed his photograph gallery to his new quarters over Crutcher & Starks' clothing house, where he is ready to welcome his friends who desire pictures.

The low temperature of the past week caused the fires to be rekindled on the hearthstones, coal bins to be examined, and cloaks, shawls and overcoats to make their appearance.

Judge W. H. Sneed and Hon. W. C. Owens will address the people of this city at the court-house next Thursday night, 16th inst.

The Fireside Journal for the fall and winter of 1889, published by R. K. McClure & Bro., is out. It contains some spicy reading and some rare and racy illustrations. Call at McClure's and get one.

Mr. Pres. T. Kisdale has sold his interest in the Georgetown Every Saturday to his partner, Mr. R. K. West, and has purchased Mr. West's interest in the Every Saturday job printing office. Success to them both.

Visitors to the penitentiary were charged an admission fee of fifteen cents, for a few days after the labor on the inside of the walls was leased by Messrs. Jones & Co., but it was soon found that it would not do, and the charge has been removed.

The reason the colored people are not charged as much as the whites for admission to the fair grounds of the Kentucky Industrial Association is evidently attributable to the fact that the accommodations for colored people are quite indifferent.

Mr. Richard Tobin broke ground Wednesday for the foundation of a neat frame cottage which he will put up on the lot adjoining Lieut. C. C. Todd's residence, at the head of Cross street, South Frankfort. The cottage will be on the order of Lieut. Todd's.

The examining trial of Jas. Fleming for cutting Ben. Taylor with intent to kill took place before Esquires G. W. Gwin and Pat. McDonald Wednesday, and resulted in Fleming being held over to the circuit court, and his bail fixed at $200, failing to give which he was placed in jail.

The work shops at the penitentiary are being considerably improved. Floors have been laid in them, new machinery has been put in, and experienced workmen from Cincinnati have been employed to superintend each shop, and Messrs. Jones & Co. will work the prison force to better advantage than has ever been done before.

The little steamer Dora, that has been undergoing repairs and having her machinery thoroughly overhauled at the Capital City Machine Works in this city, is afloat once more and will make regular trips from this city to Tyrone, Anderson county. She takes no passengers, however, but is used only as a freight boat for the exclusive convenience of Mr. Rippey, the owner.

There is a movement on foot looking to the widening of Bridge street from the bridge to Mr. H. R. Williams' property, on the corner of Bridge and Second streets. Gen. Lindsey submitted a proposition to the Council Tuesday with regard to the matter, which was referred to a committee. We hope it will be accepted and the work completed before cold weather.

The rain kept a great many farmers at home on County Court-day, and there were comparatively few people in town. There was very little stock on the market, and not much demand for even that little. A few second-hand buggies were sold at low figures. Some real estate was offered for sale, but the prices bid were so low that it was withdrawn.

Callender's world-renowned, genuine Georgia Minstrels will appear at Major Opera House next Monday night. This troupe is too well known to need words of commendation. Just go and see them and you will be convinced that they are the best colored troupe on the road. Reserved seats are for sale at Dryden's News Depot.

As alcohol, tobacco, opium, Indian hemp, chloroform, hashish, absinthe, &c., prevents the good effects of Fellows' Hypophosphites, so Fellows' Hypophosphites is an antidote against all these narcotics and relatives, and will restore to health such as have been injured by them.
